Dedication

We the Senior Class of 1979, could not decide on just one person that we wanted to dedicate our Annual to, so our dedication goes to you—the Underclassmen, School Board, Administration, Faculty, and People of the Community. For you have given us support, you have helped us make decisions, and you have shared your knowledge and advice with us to help us face a future on our own.

We had a youth dominated squad this year. Special mention should be made to our underclassmen, they showed improvement, and hope for next year.

Senior letterman, Cliff Fleming proved his worth as a runner. He won the 3200, 1600 and 800 meter District crowns, and is on his way to the state meet again this year. Results were not available at date of printing.

Rest Assured

Mr. Morlock (Dave H.) is a fidgety, nervous, old goat who doesn't think about anything but money. He won't let his daughter Mary (Connie C.) become engaged to Joe Lanconi (Terry U.) because Joe's papa is poor. So Joe's papa Luigi (Dale L.) comes over to plead his son's case and in the end, he gets into a fight with Mr. Morlock. Well Luigi's always had a bad heart and just couldn't take it, and konked out. The feud appears over, right? But wait up! Luigi gets permission to come back and haunt Mr. Morlock until he gives his permission for the wedding. Now everyone thinks Mr. Morlock is nuts, he talks to himself, get kicked around (with help from Luigi) and finally he ACCIDENTLY takes too many sleeping pills. Then he, too, kicked the bucket and won't leave until things are settled. So round and round they go again. Right about now, Lucifer, (Aaron T.) the rounder-upper of lost souls from "down below" drops in to take Mr. Morlock. Meanwhile, things at the Morlock home go on as usual, and Mr. Morlock finally realizes what a heel he's been and if he only had another chance. Just then Mildred, the maid (Julie T.) awakens him. Neither him or Luigi are dead, it was just a bad dream! Needless to say, a very reformed Mr. Morlock makes vast promises, and okays the wedding and peace finally reigns at the Morlocks.
